

by machine guns, and with great skill withdrew his patrol under fire, without loss. Robert Alexander, Major General Commanding. G.H.Q., French Armies of the East, Order No. 16,045 "D": Après approbation du General Commandant en Chef les Forces expéditionnaires Americaines en France, le Maréchal de France, Commandant en Chef les Armées Françaises de l'Est cite a l'Ordre de l'Armée. . . . Cox, Leonard, sous lieutenant au 305 regt. 77 Div. U.S., . . . Officier d'un courage admirable. Accompagné d'un autre officier il alla en reconnaissance en plein jour avec une patrouille de 10 hommes, dont il conduisit la moitié jusque dans la cour du château où il se huerta à un groupe d'ennemis, qu'il mit hors de combat. Il continua son observation sous le feu de l'ennemi, et ramena, grace à son courage et sa science, des précieuses informations. Le Maréchal de France, Commandant en Chef les Armées Françaises de l'Est, Petain.

1925 class book
10 years

ALBERT BURCHFIELD CRAIG

Oil and Gas, Manufacturing
800 Columbia Bank Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Residence: Sewickley, Pa.

JOSH has been associated with oil and gas industries since graduation. He has been—and is—geologist of the Greensboro Gas Co. and of the Chartiers Oil Co., where he also serves as manager. He is vice-president of the Power Manufacturing Company and is a director in all of these companies and also in the Craig Oil Co. and the Freedom Oil Works Co. Josh has served four years as a trustee of a local church and is interested in the agricultural development of the county in which he lives. He is also an officer of the local cattle club.

He married Miss Elizabeth W. Gibson at Pittsburgh on January 8, 1918. They have three children, Henrietta Burchfield, born October 1, 1918; Mary Elizabeth, born February 21, 1921, and Albert Burchfield, Jr., born April 19, 1924.

WAR RECORD: Entered Navy July 19, 1917, Newport, R.I., as 2nd class machinist's mate. Promoted chief yeoman Oct. 1917. Stationed Newport, R.I., during all active duty. Commissioned ensign Feb. 1919. Discharged March 1919.

DERBY CRANDALL, JR.

Salesman and Manufacturers' Agent, 300 Madison Ave., New York City
Residence: 500 West 140th St., New York City

DERBY has given the editors only the sketchiest sort of a record, beyond the fact that on June 4, 1919, he married Miss Crystal Kennedy of New York City. The committee, however, can add the fact that in the summer he is frequently seen on the sands of Long Beach, Long Island.

Derby is manufacturer's agent for the Hy-Test Cement Co. of Philadelphia; and, judging from the hurried questionnaire we received, the job keeps him busy.